

THE Dress

Finding the perfect dress is meant to be one of the best parts of getting married, so don't be confused by Singapore's many bridal shops that cater to different cultures. We've tracked down some of the best that offer Western styles and sizes and give great service.

THE PRELUDE BRIDAL

This cosy bridal boutique stocks understated, simple gowns by international and contemporary designers including Amanda Wakeley, David Fielden and now Monique Lhuillier, who is popular among celebrities. They don't offer a made-to-measure service, but they will make alterations.

Can I keep the dress?

All the dresses are for sale.

How far in advance should I call?

For most of the labels, you need to order approximately three months in advance. Alterations take an additional two to three weeks, depending on whether a second fitting is required.

The Prelude Bridal is located at 21A Duxton Hill. Call 6221 4982 or visit www.theprelude.com.sg.
